

MICROSKILLS BOARD CALL FOR DIRECTORS:

Community Microskills Development Centre (MicroSkills) is seeking a new member to serve on its volunteer Board of Directors.

MicroSkills is a United Way member agency serving priority neighbourhoods across the GTA since 1984. The agency is a non-profit, community-based organization committed to assisting the unemployed, with a priority to women, newcomers and youth, many who face multiple challenges. Last year MicroSkills helped almost 18,000 clients to build better futures for themselves and their families.

Microskills Board is comprised of 15 independent directors with a diverse set of disciplines, expertise and backgrounds. The Board is looking for members who have a keen interest in building better futures for vulnerable individuals and are willing to make a minimum time commitment. Each board member is expected to serve on at least one board committee (one of Governance, Audit & Risk, Resource Development or Nominations).

MicroSkills is looking for specific expertise in the following areas:

- Change Management
- Resource Development
- Employment Law
- Government Relations

If you would like to be an active participant in building better communities by enabling individuals to become socially and economically self-sufficient, and you bring the experience, skills and commitment for this important role, please email your resume to microskillsboard@gmail.com

Thank you for your interest!
